

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Monmouth Handicap and Barnes-get Stakes Features To-Day.

The Pepper and Kinglet Appear Well and May Win.

The Monmouth Handicap, for all ages at a mile and a half, and the Barnes-get Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile and a quarter, are the features of today's card at Monmouth Park.

In the Monmouth Handicap are entered some of the best old horses in training. Among those named to start are Mars, The Pepper, Pickwick, Banquet, Glooming and Kilkenny. This race is a very open one on paper, and it should be well worth the trip to witness.

The Barnegat Stakes, for three-year-olds, will no doubt furnish good sport, despite the fact that the class of horses entered is below the average. But the youngsters are of one class the race should furnish a good contest.

In the four other races the quality of the horses entered are above the average, and racing may therefore be expected from first to last. Following are the selections:
